PORTRAITS OF COUNTY SUPERVISORS ON DISPLAY AT COURTHOUSE

Chairman invites residents, school groups to County Board lobby

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Board Chairman Lee Holloway recently unveiled a display featuring portraits of all 19 Milwaukee County Supervisors, and he’s inviting the community to visit the Courthouse to take a look.

Like many other County, State, and City governments in Wisconsin, Holloway felt it was important to put the official photographs of the County Board on display for all to see. “I invite all Milwaukee County residents to the Board of Supervisors lobby area, especially civic and youth groups interested in identifying their Supervisors and learning more about Milwaukee County government.”

The Milwaukee Common Council has similar photos on display at Milwaukee’s City Hall, including historical portraits of past Common Council Presidents, leading up to current President Willie Hines, Jr.

Chairman Holloway also believes the pictures provide a vehicle for minorities to connect with County leaders. “Our Board is made up of six African-Americans, one Hispanic-American, and five women. These pictures are an outstanding visual representation of diversity, and might inspire the young people of our community to learn more about the people from all walks of life who serve on this Board.”

The County Board portraits are accessible by the public during normal business hours, from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday in Room 201 of the Milwaukee County Courthouse.
