

Milwaukee County

Supervisor Elizabeth Coggs-Jones, 10th District

August 10, 2007

For Immediate Release

Contact: Supervisor Coggs-Jones, 10th District

SUPERVISOR COGGS-JONES ANNOUNCES BIKE SAFETY RODEO

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Elizabeth Coggs-Jones is sponsoring the 3rd Annual Bike Safety Rodeo at Milwaukee County's Tiefenthaler Park, located at 2501 W. Galena on Saturday, June 26, 2004 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Bike Safety Rodeo is an opportunity for neighborhood children aged 2 – 18 to bring their bikes and friends to learn bike safety rules, get free bike helmets and enter into a raffle to win free zoo passes and one of four free bicycles. Children can also receive free bike repairs while they wait. After the rodeo, attendees can stay to enjoy a free lunch.

The 3rd Annual Bike Safety Rodeo is co-sponsored by Habush, Habush & Rottier and Eisenberg, Weigel, Carlson, Blau & Clemens S.C. Additional sponsors of the Rodeo include the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Department, the Milwaukee Police Department's Safety Division, Children's Hospital's Injury Free Program, Girl Scouts of Milwaukee Area, Boy Scouts of America, Sherman Park Boys & Girls Club, Mid-Town Neighborhood Association, Mid-Town Residents Association, Inc., Wheel & Sprocket, Big-H Block Club, Northside Habitat Block Club, North 26th Street Block Club, Community Activist and Growing Together Director John Wallace.

Supervisor Coggs-Jones is the Chair of the Milwaukee County Health and Human Needs Committee. She represents Milwaukee County's 10th Supervisory District that includes the City of Milwaukee's near north side and a portion of Downtown Milwaukee.

###