ENEWS CONNECTION-10

Dear Friend,

It is my pleasure to commend Mayor Barrett for the courageous actions he took a couple weeks ago. It is refreshing to see that chivalry is not dead. We all thank the Mayor for intervening on behalf of a woman and her child to ensure their safety and save their lives! It's clear that as in the medieval times, Mayor Barrett is standing like a knight in shining armor.

I always ask my fellow brother... is chivalry dead in 2009? Ladies, when was the last time a gentleman opened the door for you? Gentlemen, when was the last time you escorted a lady to the car and opened the door for her? Well, while you contemplate on that, let's give the Mayor a high five! Many people ask why the Mayor did not have his security protection with him. I really do not have the answer. But, as an elected official, sometimes you just don't have privacy when you are in public places and maybe he just wanted to hang out and be a regular person with his family.

Lastly, at the end of the day, Mayor Barrett stood up to protect a woman and child in our community. I encourage people in all neighborhoods to take a stand for advocacy against violence and aggression. Get the courage to call 911. It is not always wise to physically intervene. Protect and preserve the freedoms that people of all ages enjoy in America today! Mayor, we are glad to see you back at work; take it slow and God Bless You.

Faith, Hope & Harmony,
Elizabeth M. Coggs
