SUPERVISOR ELIZABETH COGGS-JONES ELECTED TO WISCONSIN PTA EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Sworn in as Legislative Liaison over the weekend in Madison

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Elizabeth Coggs-Jones has been elected to the Executive Committee of the Wisconsin Parent-Teacher Association’s (PTA) Board of Directors. She was sworn in as the Legislative Liaison at the Board of Directors meeting in Madison last weekend.

“I fully support the PTA’s mission of being a powerful voice for children and a relevant resource for families and communities,” Supervisor Coggs-Jones said. “Together, we can all be strong advocates for the education and well being of every child. I’m proud to have been given this opportunity!”

“I recommended Supervisor Coggs-Jones for this position because of her strong record advocating for children, families and education,” added Roxanne Starks, president-elect of the Wisconsin PTA Board. “I’m pleased she was elected Legislative Liaison of the Board of Directors’ Executive Committee. She will bring a lot to the table.”

Supervisor Coggs-Jones serves as Chair of the Milwaukee County Board’s Health & Human Needs Committee and the Milwaukee County Combined Community Services Board. She also founded and continues to organize the annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Back-2-School festival each August.
